

North Carolina Section of the Institute of Transportation Engineers
(NCSITE)

Asheville Pedestrian Safety Focused Local Meeting

Friday, April 15, 2005

North Carolina Arboretum

100 Fredrick Law Olmstead Way

Asheville, NC 28806

Announcement

Transportation and Planning Professionals:

Please join us in Asheville, NC at the North Carolina Arboretum for a Pedestrian Safety Focused Local meeting sponsored by the North Carolina Section of the Institute of Transportation Engineers Transportation Planning Council.

The meeting's program brings together practitioners from Municipal and Federal government as well as the research community to discuss pedestrian safety. Spanning operations, policy, planning, and design, the program of speakers will present a broad range of experiences, initiatives, and opportunities regarding pedestrian safety. The day will end with a panel discussion summarizing what practices are working best in our communities.

The meeting will take place at the beautiful setting of the North Carolina Arboretum. A catered lunch is included with the meeting registration fee. Please note that there is a $6.00 parking fee for passenger vehicles. Additional information regarding the Arboretum may be found at the website <http://www.ncarboretum.org>